

Global Markets Newsletter: Email and SMS Service giving comments on world markets day to day impact on Indian markets

- There is very less need to say how much coupled the global markets are now with Indian markets then yesteryears.
- Not just short, medium or long term but the day to day movement has also been started to highly influence by the USA, European and Other Asian markets movements.
- Today the FII's trade all over the world's markets. It is not unknown that FII's are the dominant players and key market drivers in all major stock markets including India's. Thus the knowledge and forecasting of world markets and a perspective how the global markets could behave can help estimate FII's moves and thus benefit from it.
- This 'Global Markets Newsletter' is sent once every week on weekend or during the weekdays via email. The subscriber is also sent SMS of important world market updates, world market prices, world market important news; which are important to know for him/her as a trader and investor in Indian market.
- The newsletter and sms service is aimed at giving important updates and analysis of international stock markets and its effects on Indian markets. We do not give useless bulky information but try to be precise and short and put main points or conclusions at the same time trying to put logics wherever required.
- As this product is introductory, the fee is kept at Rs.1500 for 1 month and 3500 for 3 months.